

Hi I'm Emma Pope from Paris Smith Solicitors.

I'm a solicitor and I work in Southampton. I specialise in property law but my Firm can deal with any area of UK law including wills, probate, litigation, mediation, divorce, child care, trusts, corporate business, commercial agreements, licensing and employment.

My particular speciality is commercial property which includes landlord and tenant advice and business leases. I can also assist with the purchase and disposal of businesses, shareholder and partnership agreements and the buying and selling of residential property.

Thanks and see in you in two weeks.
